

CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT

The floral industry is a fast-paced, dynamic and rewarding field. Successful candidates develop the ability to think on their feet and to demonstrate manual dexterity, people skills and product knowledge. The beauty of the product, pleasing the customer and the opportunity for creative expression are the rewards of this career field along with a profitable return on your business venture. Some typical positions in floral establishments might include owner/manager, lead designer, assistant designer, salesperson, cut flower processor, interior plant maintenance personnel and delivery personnel.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES - Graduates of this program will have the opportunity to:

- Perform all basic tasks of a floral designer in a commercial setting.
- Calculate and develop market sheets for ordering product for shop needs and act as a consultant for weddings, special events and funerals.
- Function as a salesperson and be able to select and recommend materials for the construction of floral décor to customer’s preference, using industry standards.
