Did you know when you nominate a classified employee for “Classified Employee of the Month” and that person wins, that winner is announced via an email from the President’s office? This way, all of CSN gets to recognize that person’s good work. In addition to the email recognition, each “Classified Employee of the Month” also receives:

$200 payable at the end of that month

A reserved parking spot of the winner’s choice, for the month

A certificate of recognition

In addition, the employee’s name appears on the “Classified Employee of the Month” plaques hung at each of the three main campuses and on the Classified Council website!
