

CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT

The Certificate of Achievement in Business German teaches students the language of Business German and gives them an insight into a global economy. The topics, language and skill-building exercises offer excellent preparation for students who, after 30 credits in German, plan to pursue careers in hotels, casinos, restaurants, tourism or international business.

In addition, students acquire the essential skills necessary for proficiency in the world of German business, finance, industry, ecology, economics and geography. Moreover, students will be well prepared to pass the prestigious and universally recognized examination, Prüfung Wirtschaftsdeutsch International (International Business German Examination).

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES - Graduates of this program will have the opportunity to:

- Acquire essential vocabulary for the hotel, gaming, restaurant, tourism and international business environments as well as vocabulary relating to medicine and government.
- Respond appropriately in German to selected business documents.
- Initiate bank transactions in German linguistic and cultural contexts e.g. open a bank account.
- Apply principles of successful job interviewing as defined in German cultural and linguistic contexts.
- Apply techniques that enable the establishment of contacts with German clients.
