

Public and College Relations
6375 W Charleston Blvd W3D
Las Vegas, NV 89146-1164
702-651-7305
fax 702-651-5816

For Immediate Release

GED students at CCSN to receive diplomas on Sunday, June 17

LAS VEGAS, June 13, 2007—The sixth annual graduation ceremony for General Educational Development students at Community College of Southern Nevada will be held Sunday, June 17 at 1 p.m. on the Charleston campus.

Under the auspices of the CCSN Division of Workforce and Economic Development, Adult Literacy and Language Program, 27 GED graduates will receive their diplomas at the Student Services Building, Room 101.

Guest speaker will be Anthony Eddington, 2006 GED recipient. Terri Kaulentis, workforce specialist for the Adult Literacy and Language Program, will present the class of 2007.

Ranging in age from 22 to 45, the students took CCSN-sponsored courses at Sahara West, Green Valley Technical Center and the Urban League, Kaulentis said.

About CCSN

Founded in 1971 and educating more than 70,000 students annually, the Community College of Southern Nevada (ccsn.edu) is the state's largest college. CCSN is one of the country's most exciting and dynamic colleges with more than 200 degrees and certificates in over 100 areas of study. Students create flexible, personalized schedules including day, evening and weekend classes taught on three main campuses, 14 academic and learning centers and many satellite locations throughout Southern Nevada.

#