CSN Henderson campus fall 2008 cultural events

LAS VEGAS, Sept. 23, 2008 — The College of Southern Nevada's Henderson campus is celebrating artistic diversity by hosting a series of cultural events this fall. Everyone in the community is invited to participate in these free activities and enjoy receptions and refreshments following the events.

Events include:

How Green Can You Go | Sept. 26 | learn how to conserve energy in your home, tap into solar energy and reduce your home's energy hogs

Friday Night Jazz | Oct. 17 | CSN faculty members Walt Blanton and Chris Davis provide a great evening of jazz, from traditional to progressive

CSN Vocal Showcase | Oct. 24 | A musical trip down memory lane featuring popular tunes for the whole family

The Art and Architecture of the Las Vegas Casino | Nov. 7 | Professor Fred Sigman presents the fascinating history of 'Architainment,' Las Vegas' unique blend of resort, hotel and casino and entertainment

The March Kings | Nov. 14 | CSN Concert Band presents the best marches from the world's greatest march composers

All events are at 7:30 p.m. in C-Building, Room 133 of the CSN Henderson Campus at 700 College Drive in Henderson. Call 651.3000 for directions or more information.
