

OFFICE OF FINANCIAL AID
2022-2023 Request for Change in Dependency

2023 CFINDP

Student Name: _____ NSHE ID: _____

Per the US Department of Education, you are automatically deemed an independent student if you meet at least one of the following criteria:

- You are over 24 years of age.
- You will be working on a graduate (i.e., Master’s Degree or Ph.D.) or professional (i.e., MD or JD) degree during the current academic year.
- You are married (as of the date the current year’s FAFSA was filed).
- You have children that receive more than half of their support from you.
- You have dependents other than children for who you provide more than half of their support.
- You are an orphan and/or ward of the court before your 18th birthday.
- You are a veteran of the US Armed Forces.

If you meet any of the above-listed criteria, please have the Office of Financial Aid review the accuracy of your 2022-2023 FAFSA. We may ask for documentation to confirm your FAFSA dependency status.

If you DO NOT meet any of the above-listed criteria, you may be eligible for a Dependency Override based on the circumstances listed in Section 2 of this form. Please note: Self-sufficiency or unwillingness on the part of your parent(s) or stepparent(s) to assist you is NOT a basis for an appeal.

Please complete all sections of this form and submit the required documentation to the Office of Financial Aid. The form and required documents must be submitted together. Incomplete appeals are subject to denial.

Section 1: Required documentation

- A signed statement explaining the circumstances that prevent you from providing parent(s) information on the 2022-2023 FAFSA. Please include any relevant dates in your statement.
- Court documentation (e.g., emancipation), police reports, or other documentation supporting your statement
- Two (2) signed written statements from a third-party source (counselor, court official, clergy, etc.) familiar with your situation. All third-party documentation MUST be signed on official letterhead.
- A copy of your birth certificate

Section 2: Circumstances - Select the circumstance that best fits your situation

- The custodial parent is now deceased, and there is no contact with the remaining parent
- Emancipated Minor before your 18th birthday and still estranged from both parents
- Both parents are, or the custodial parent is institutionalized or incarcerated (no contact with the remaining parent)
- Both parents lack the physical or mental capacity to provide support
- Involuntary Disillusionment/abusive family environment (e.g., physical, mental, sexual abuse, or domestic violence)
- Abandonment by parents

Section 3: CERTIFICATION

I certify that all the information provided as part of this appeal is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that I may be required to submit additional documents to the CSN Office of Financial Aid. If this request is approved, it is valid for the current academic year ONLY and must be renewed each year. CSN is not bound by any decisions made at other colleges. I also understand that the decision made by CSN is final and cannot be appealed. Students must sign this form.
