Section 1. Position Approval and Recruitment

It is the responsibility of the hiring supervisor to ensure funding availability prior to initiating the online requisition process for approval and posting of the position. All positions must be approved by the Vice President of Academic Affairs (VPAA), in consultation with the Vice President of Finance (VPF) or their designees. Replacement positions must be entered into the online system Workday system as soon as the notification of vacancy occurs and approval to replace is obtained.

The Department Chair initiates the requisition process in the online system Workday system and the position is approved by the respective Dean, VPAA and VPF. Prior to posting, Human Resources and the Affirmative Action Officer will review the requisition for appropriateness of content.

The Department Chair and Dean in consultation with departmental faculty members and/or with the search screening committee chair (if identified and known) will develop the job announcement prior to routing for approval and posting.

Section 2. Type of Search

Faculty searches will be posted based on the type of search requested:

a. National search – these searches must be posted for a minimum of 30 calendar days, have greater advertising minimum requirements and allow for reimbursement of candidate travel expenses (up to the approved maximum reimbursement amount).

b. Local search – these searches must be posted for a minimum of 15 calendar days, require advertising as listed below in item “3a” and do not offer candidate travel reimbursements.

VPAA has final approval on the type of search requested.
All positions will be posted as “open until filled” with a full consideration date by which applicants are encouraged to apply.

All positions will be posted with a closing date and will only be “open until filled” upon request of the hiring committee.

Section 4. Members of the Search Screening Committee

a. The hiring supervisor Human Resources will immediately provide a list of all departmental faculty that have completed search screening committee training and are eligible for participation as a member of the search screening committee and e-mail the list to all the other nominators. The nominators will consult with proposed nominees of the search screening committee and once finalized, will log in to the online system will notify the assigned recruiter in Human Resources within and make their nomination within seven (7) calendar days of receiving the list and/or notification of the need to make a nomination. If the nominator fails to make his/her nomination within that timeframe, the duty to make the nomination will default to the VPAA/desighee.

b. The members of the screening committee will generally be comprised of five (5) academic faculty members but will be no larger than seven (7) members unless authorized by the VPAA.

c. Members of the Screening Committee are nominated by: the Department Chair (2 members); the School Dean (1 member), Faculty Senate Chair (1 member); VPAA (1 member) and Affirmative Action Officer (1 member). For Academic Faculty searches, the Dean or Associate Vice President in consultation with the Department Chair or Director shall select the Screening Committee Chair. If the Department Chair is not available, the duty to select the Hiring Committee/Search Chair must fall to a relevant Program Director.

d. The screening committee chair will be a tenured academic faculty member who has attended search screening committee chair training. When the department lacks a sufficient number of tenured faculty, the Department Chair or Director in consultation with the Dean or Associate Vice President can authorize a non-tenured “market factor” faculty member with at least four years of service to serve as the chair.

e. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee will review the members of the search Screening Committee makeup prior to making their nomination, to ensure the members of the search Screening Committee are diverse (gender, race, etc.).

f. The VPAA or designee will review and approve the members of the Screening Committee. Once approved, Human Resources will notify the members of the screening committee chair of their appointment to the committee.

g. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee along with the Dean of the School or Associate Vice President will meet with the members of the search Screening Committee at the first search Screening Committee meeting to assist in training committee members on procedures and hiring goals as outlined by the Affirmative Action Plan. The Affirmative Action Officer may serve as a resource to the committee. The Screening Committee will develop a timeline to complete the screening, initial and in person interviews.

h. If a member of the Screening Committee is listed by an applicant as a reference, they must elect to either resign from the search committee or be removed as a reference for the applicant. When Screening Committee members withdraw as a reference, and if it is necessary due to lack of references for the applicant, the applicant will be notified and given the opportunity to provide replacement references before references are contacted within the process, if they so desire.

Section 5. Screening

a. Both the committee chair and a Human Resources staff member will independently screen all applications for minimum qualifications within five (5) working days of the position's closing date or full consideration date for “open until filled” positions.
