I. POLICY PURPOSE

To provide uniform guidelines to faculty in the development of course syllabi.

II. POLICY STATEMENT

The course syllabus communicates course information and defines expectations for students and faculty. A syllabus is required for every course.

III. PROCEDURE

A. By the second class meeting, all course instructors, including part time faculty, will provide written or electronic course information (syllabi) to students. A copy of the syllabus for each course will be filed for six years with the Department Chair. Faculty members are encouraged to post syllabi to the Learning Management System.

B. Faculty members must include the minimum information below for each course.

1. Course information: title, catalog number, description, and prerequisites
2. Meeting times (days of the week and time of day) and location and/or online time expectations
3. Instructor information: instructor’s name, office (room) number, mailbox location or sort code, office hours, telephone number, and email address, or as appropriate. Methods of communicating with student outside of the classroom
4. Student learning outcomes
5. Description of assessment methods, how grades are determined, and the grading scale
6. Required and recommended texts, including any items on reserve
7. Policies on late assignments and/or makeup work
8. Description of attendance policy
9. Statement that syllabus is subject to change as deemed appropriate by the instructor with advance notification
10. Tentative schedule for the semester
11. Reference to CSN Academic Integrity Policy
12. CSN Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) statement and current CSN Disability Resource Center contact information
13. Reference to students' rights and responsibilities pertaining to CSN policies and services are found in the College Catalog and on the CSN website
14. Reference to CSN Libraries support
15. Required extra- or co-curricular activities if applicable
16. Statement of safety or risk assumption if applicable
17. Statement of additional fees if applicable
18. Instructor’s policies on possibly objectionable materials if applicable
19. Description of additional information unique to the course or instructor

C. Any additional information or specific statements to be included in syllabi should be submitted to the Academic Standards Committee (ASC) for approval. Submissions should occur no later than one month before the end of the semester prior to implementation. ASC will maintain a webpage of approved wording.
