CSN IAC Chair Nancy E. Brune, Ph.D.
Executive Director
Kenny Guinn Center for Policy Priorities
Dr. Nancy E. Brune is the Executive Director of the Kenny Guinn Center for Policy Priorities. Previously, she was a Senior Policy Analyst at Sandia National Laboratories. Dr. Brune has consulted for the Harvard School of Public Health, JPMorgan Chase, the Overseas Private Investment Corporation, and the World Bank. She has taught at the College of Southern Nevada, Nevada State College, and the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. Dr. Brune serves on the Knowledge Fund Advisory Council, English Mastery Council, Jobs for America’s Graduates-Nevada, and STEM Advisory Council. She is a member of the Clark County Department of Social Services Community Advisory Committee, and has served on the Clark County Committee on Community Priorities, the Clark County Citizen Review Board, and the Clark County School District’s School Comparison Report Committee. Dr. Brune is on the board of Southern Nevada Public Television, the Discovery Children’s Museum, the Outside Las Vegas Foundation, KIDS COUNT Nevada Executive Committee, Goodwill Industries of Southern Nevada, and the Yale University Graduate School Alumni Association Executive Committee. She has served as a bilingual CASA and as a bilingual mediator with the Neighborhood Justice Center. Dr. Brune is the author of over 45 peer-reviewed journal articles, reports, essays, blogs, and op-ed pieces. She received her Ph.D. from Yale University and her Master of Public Policy and B.A. degrees from Harvard University.

CSN IAC Vice Chair Jose Solorio
President & Founder
PALO – Political Advancement of Latinos Organization
Jose A. Solorio is President of PALO - Political Advancement of Latinos Organization, Owner of Solorio Consulting LLC, Chair of the Latino Leadership Council Higher Ed Committee, and a member of Sheriff Joe Lombardo’s Metro Multicultural Advisory Council. Born in Florida of Mexican immigrant parents, Jose attended local urban schools Sunrise Acres ES, Jim Bridger JHS, and Rancho HS. He graduated from the University of Nevada, Reno (UNR) with both a BA in Business Administration and an MBA. His previous work experience includes five years as a Development Officer with the City of Las Vegas’ Economic and Urban Development Department and previous community advocacy experience includes four years on the Community Health Centers of Southern Nevada Board of Directors, including two years as its Chair, and two years as a Trustee for the Clark County School Board (Its first Latino Trustee). His youngest son Jose Jr. attends Columbia University in New York City, and his youngest daughter Raquel attends UNR and is a former CSN student. Mr. Solorio believes that all students of CSN should have the financial and academic support to successfully complete coursework leading to good/high paying jobs and careers, ready to succeed in meeting the needs of our local businesses, and be the central reason why our economy will thrive by growing and attracting great businesses.

Susan Adamek
Dignity Health -St. Rose Dominican
Director of Education
Susan Adamek is currently pursuing a Ph.D. in Nursing Education. She is active in professional activities, including the Education Committee of the American Organization of Nurse Executives, Nevada Organization of Nurse Leaders, the American College of Healthcare Executives, the Education Advisory Committee of the Nevada Board of Nursing, and the Nevada Action Coalition.
John R. Bailey
Bailey-Kennedy LLP
Senior Partner
John Bailey is an attorney specializing in corporate litigation, healthcare law, and gaming law. He is the founding member and managing partner of Bailey Kennedy, LLP. He is acting chairman of the Moral Character and Fitness Committee of the Nevada State Bar. He earned his law degree from McGeorge School of Law. John was recommended for a Judgeship on the U.S. Court of Appeals. He is a director of the Public Education Foundation and Council for Better Nevada. Mr. Bailey is also the chairman of the advisory board of the Andre Agassi College Preparatory Academy.

Ardell Galbreth
Executive Director
Workforce Connections
As the executive director of Workforce Connections, Ardell Galbreth serves as the agency’s chief staff officer. He has the responsibility for working with state and local workforce development agencies in developing strategic employment and training work plans in support of Southern Nevada Workforce Investment areas.

Maria Jose Gatti
Executive Director of Corporate Philanthropy & Community Engagement
MGM Resorts International
Maria Jose Gatti is responsible for fostering and maintaining relationships with national and local community organizations that focus on diversity and equality issues. Through these relationships, she supports the company’s business objectives, and additionally facilitates its participation in programs and events that support the community. She also implements programs to help educate and engage the employees of MGM Resorts on diversity related initiatives, activities and issues. Maria is also the program director for the MGM Resorts Foundation Women’s Leadership Conference, which focuses on the professional development of women of all industries.

Patty Holden
CEO
Mesa View Regional Hospital
Patty Holden, MBA, FACHE is currently the CEO for Mesa View Regional Hospital in Mesquite. She first served as the interim CEO beginning July 9, 2012 and was named CEO on September 1, 2012. Patty Holden has more than 18 years’ administrative and business development experience in a broad range of healthcare settings, including larger and smaller hospitals. She has held various hospital administrative positions in the Las Vegas area. Just prior to joining Mesa View Regional Hospital, she served for four years as chief operating officer at Mountain Vista Hospital, a 178-bed hospital in Mesa, Arizona. She is a long-time Southern Nevada resident and still has family in the Las Vegas area. In addition to her education and experience, Patty has the distinction of being a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE).

Vida Chan Lin
President
Asian Community Development Council

Vida Chan Lin is a 20-year insurance executive and has been an integral part in the rapid growth of the Asian business community in Southern Nevada. She oversees multi-lingual staffs that have been able to assist investors, developers and business owners in the rapidly expanding Spring Mountain Corridor as well as throughout the Las Vegas Valley. Vida is a past President of the Asian Chamber of Commerce and she is the first woman to hold the title in the chamber’s 24-year history.

Norberto Madrigal
Lunas Construction
The Lunas Family started Lunas Construction cleanup in 1988 with just a few small pickups. The North Las Vegas business now hauls over 35 hundred cubic yards of trash a day. Norberto Madrigal has worn many hats in his career—water truck guy, demolition crew member, entrepreneur, philanthropist, CEO and more and offers a unique outlook to the management of multi-disciplinary projects and complex challenges. In addition, Norberto served as an inaugural member of the CSN North Las Vegas Advisory Board.

Paul Moradkhan
Vice President Government Affairs
Las Vegas Metro Chamber of Commerce
Paul Moradkhan oversees the Metro chamber’s extensive advocacy efforts on public policy priorities at the federal, regional, state and local levels. Paul has a Masters of Public Policy from Pepperdine University, as well as a Bachelor of Arts degree from UNLV. He is a 2012 graduate of the Leadership Las Vegas program and was named one of the 40 under 40 by Vegas Inc. in 2014.

Shaundell Newsome
Founder
Sumnu Marketing
After a decade in the USAF and seven years with Station Casinos, Shaundell Newsome founded Newsome Marketing Enterprises in April 2006 to provide a marketing firm for the small business owner. In 2008, Newsome was recognized as one of the “Top 40 under 40” business persons by In Business Las Vegas and Small Business Champion of the Year by the Small Business Administration. He later launched Sumnu Marketing to realize over 40% new earnings. Sumnu Marketing was a finalist for the Small Business of the Year in the Women/Minority Owned Small Business category in 2012. Recently, Sumnu has been recognized as a Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce Business Excellence Award honoree for 2014.

Dennis Perea
Interim Director and Deputy Director
Nevada Department of Employment Training and Rehabilitation
Dennis Perea has responsibility for ensuring quality delivery of the state’s demand-driven business occupations. Dennis has responsibility for ensuring quality delivery of the state’s employment and training and enforcement programs. He has executive oversight of the Nevada Equal Rights
Jonas Peterson
COO
Las Vegas Global Economic Alliance
Prior to joining LVGEA, Jonas Peterson served as president/CEO of the Santa Clarita Valley Economic Development Corporation (SCVEDC). During his tenure, SCVEDC quickly emerged as one of the most productive economic development organizations in California. Peterson has conducted considerable research on comparative advantage and quantitative marketing. Previous publications include “Minding Our Own Businesses: A Practitioner’s Guide to Regional Business Retention and Expansion,” and “Recruiting California: Why Business in the Golden State Responds to Quantitative Marketing.”

Randy Robison
Director of Legislative Affairs
CenturyLink
Randy Robison is a native of Southern Nevada and his current post in a 20-year career in government affairs and advocacy is as the director of Legislative Affairs for CenturyLink in Las Vegas. He was an original member of the CSN North Las Vegas Advisory Board. He is a former Executive Director of the Nevada Association of School Boards, and he currently serves on the board of the American Red Cross Southern Nevada Chapter, the Clark County School District School-Community Partnership Advisory Council, and Nevada Volunteers – the Governor’s commission on community service and volunteerism. Randy lives in North Las Vegas with his beautiful wife and five children.

Shari Wong
Director of Communications
Arcata Associates and Wong Media Inc.
Prior to moving to Las Vegas in 2001, Shari Wong was an Emmy-award winning broadcast journalist in Washington, D.C., working as an anchor/report for the NBC station in the nation’s capital for nearly a decade. Shari is actively involved in the Las Vegas community serving on the Smith Center for the Performing Arts Advisory Board, Trustee/Secretary for the Discovery Children’s Museum Board of Trustees, the Meadows School parents’ association board and a community advisory member of CSN’s Strategic Planning Committee.

Ex officio
Camille Naaktgeboren, Ph.D.
CSN Faculty Senate Chair

Rachel Clark
Associated Students of the College of Southern Nevada (ASCSN) Senator