Community College of Southern Nevada

Political Activity, Political and Public Interest Issue Advocacy, and the Use of CCSN Facilities

Purpose

CCSN’s mission is to educate students, and its facilities are provided primarily for the support of its educational objectives and functions. CCSN’s functions take precedence over any other activities in the use of its facilities.

At the same time, CCSN encourages participation by students, faculty and staff in matters of public interest while on campus consistent with their other responsibilities, and will make its facilities available on appropriate terms whenever a request is made that can be accommodated consistent with CCSN’s mission and duties. This policy reiterates CCSN’s position of neutrality concerning candidates and issues, and addresses the use of CCSN’s campus and facilities to allow such participation within the framework of state and federal laws, Board of Regent’s policy, and CCSN’s educational mission.

The elements of this policy are designed, and shall be interpreted and construed, to provide for free speech in a safe and orderly manner not impermissibly interfering with the academic process and operations of CCSN to the extent permissible under applicable law, including but not necessarily limited to the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and shall not be construed or applied so as to limit free speech or association based upon the content of speech or to otherwise limit free speech or association in a manner contrary to applicable law.

This policy does not apply to collegial discourse among faculty or academic discussion within or associated with CCSN classes. This policy does not apply to ASCCSN elections which are governed by more specific campaign rules.

RULES APPLICABLE TO THE COLLEGE COMMUNITY AND OUTSIDE PARTIES

A policy of nonpartisanship for elected officials and neutrality of position on public interest issues will govern the college at all times. The following guidelines will be followed:

- CCSN will not sponsor or support political candidates.
- CCSN will not endorse any position on public interest issues.
• CCSN campus mail, emails, phones or faxes will not be used to distribute political or public interest materials in any form. This applies to both members and nonmembers of the CCSN community.

• Campaign signs and handbills for public officials or for ballot initiatives or questions or public interest issues are subject to the college’s Posting Policy. Such materials may be distributed by hand outdoors in the Political Advocacy Area only. The Political Advocacy Area consists of the following campus locations:

  West Charleston Campus—outside in the center location between the “C” and “D” buildings, and the Patio Area of the “B” building—west of the food service area

  Cheyenne Campus—outside in front of the Russell’s Restaurant Patio Area, and in the open area west of the northeast entrance to the building.

  Henderson Campus—outside behind the “C” building and outside the back entry to building “B” between the CCSN High School modulars and the “B” building

  CCSN Sites and Centers—appropriate open locations outside at all CCSN sites as allowed by the CCSD and other partner institutions

  Interference with entrances to buildings, classrooms, offices or study areas at any CCSN location is prohibited at all times and places.

• All literature, petitions and materials may be offered but not distributed in a manner that would be considered coercive, or interfere with the normal progression to classes, college business or flow of traffic. In such cases, the Campus Administrators or his/her designee may ask the person to vacate the premises.

• If any materials or signs are placed on campus in violation of the Posting Policy, the Campus Administrators should be notified immediately. CCSN will attempt to contact the owner of such materials or signs to voluntarily remove them. If not immediately removed, CCSN will remove them.

• Any amplified sound must not interfere with academic instruction, other scheduled events, normal business of the college, or the general public.

• All persons, whether employees, students or non-students, who wish to use Political Advocacy areas for rallies or other forms of advertised protests or political events must first register with the appropriate Campus Administrators at least five (5) working days in advance of the proposed activity. This requirement may be waived in writing by the Campus Administrators based on a showing that the immediacy of the political issue necessitates earlier approval. (List contact phone numbers) If the Campus
Administrators for the relevant campus is unavailable, then the individual(s) desiring to utilize the Political Advocacy area may instead register with any of the following CCSN officials: Vice President for Administration, 702.651.7550; Vice President for Planning and Development, 702-651-7381, 6375 W. Charleston, W3D, Las Vegas, NV 89146. Apart from Political Advocacy Areas, other areas may be considered for such events upon the approval of the Campus Administrators or his/her supervisor. In the considered judgment of the Campus Administrator, any activities that are likely to cause undue interruption of the essential operations of the College or to infringe significantly upon the rights of College community members, including, but not limited to, the rights of privacy or personal security, may not be permitted.

- Candidates for elected office, regardless of their affiliation or non-affiliation with CCSN, and their campaign organizations may rent campus facilities for campaign events. They will be treated as non-sponsored users and charged the full rental and related use fees applicable to the facilities they wish to use.

- Candidates, campaign organizations or public interest advocacy groups which rent CCSN facilities must provide to CCSN for each event a Certificate of Insurance that provides general liability coverage of at least $1 million combined single limit per occurrence.

- Officially recognized CCSN groups such as NFA, Student Government, Student Clubs, Classified Council, Faculty Senate, Administrative Assembly, departments, etc. may sponsor informational candidates’ forums and debates that also require approval, but are not subject to rental fees. These organizations should follow the Board of Regents policy of making an effort to provide a balanced program of speakers and ideas. (See Board Policy, Title 4, Chapter 10, Section 23 (7) (b).

- Others who are affiliated with CCSN (students, faculty or staff) who wish to use facilities to present informational and educational events may be subject to the insurance requirement, but based upon the risk of injury of the event, may be eligible for reduced or waived insurance limits.

RULES APPLICABLE TO CCSN EMPLOYEES

- All employees are subject to rules prohibiting use of campus-wide emails, fax machines, campus mail or other system resources for political purposes.

- No employee should state or imply CCSN's endorsement of any political candidate or petition.

- Classified Employees: Nevada Administrative Code 284.770 provides:
classified employees may vote as they choose and express their political opinions on all subjects without recourse, except that no employee may engage in political activity during the hours of his/her state employment to improve the chances of a political party or a person seeking office, or at any time engage in political activity to secure a preference for a promotion, transfer or salary advancement, nor may an employee directly or indirectly solicit or receive, or be in any manner concerned in soliciting or receiving any assessment, subscription, monetary, or non-monetary contribution for a political purpose from anyone who is in the same department and who is a subordinate of the solicitor. Note: however, that approved annual leave may be used by the employee as he or she deems appropriate.

- Professional Employees should follow similar objectives as stated above for classified employees.
