1. Nevada Regents’ Scholar Award

In addition to the above awards for faculty and staff, the Regents recognize outstanding student scholars at each NSHE institution. General selection criteria for this award are outlined in the attached procedures. The selection process for the Nevada Regents’ Scholar Award is managed on each campus and therefore has a later deadline, but your material must reach the System Office in sufficient time for inclusion in the Board materials for the February 5-6, 2009, meeting of the Regents. These awards will be granted as follows:

- Community colleges – one student per institution.
- State college – one student.
- Universities – one undergraduate and one graduate student per institution.

Please forward your scholar award nominee and a brief 1/2 page biography to Sally by December 5, 2008.

Thank you for your assistance as we honor excellence throughout the Nevada System of Higher Education.

B. In order to produce the award checks and to forward the final recommendations to the Regents’ Student and Academic Affairs Committee or the Research and Economic Development Committee, certain pieces of information are needed from the institutions.

ii. Academic Advisor Award and Scholar Award:

   Each institution provides the following information to the Vice Chancellor for Academic & Student Affairs for their campus recipients:
   - Completed NSHE Nomination Form;
   - Social Security Number; and
   - 2-3 paragraphs of text stating why each recipient was selected.
