THE ECE LAB PROGRAM

The ECE Lab Program is a nationally accredited early childhood education program within CSN's Education Department. The program operates two sites, located at the North Las Vegas and Charleston campuses, providing care and education for children age 6 months through 5 years. The program also serves as observation and practical laboratory sites for CSN students and the community.

THE CURRICULUM

The curriculum is based on developmentally appropriate practice and considers the individual needs of children and of the group. Children are provided with a nurturing, safe and secure environment that fosters their natural desire to learn through play. Some of the goals for children are:

- To help children develop positive social relationships with adults and peers
- To encourage active learning and creative thinking
- To promote a lifelong love of learning

FAMILY INVOLVEMENT AND EDUCATION

Family involvement and education are vital components of the ECE Lab Program. The ECE Lab Program involves and supports families by:

- Promoting mutual respect, common goals, and shared responsibility
- Hosting special family events
- Providing resources that link to the community
- Providing workshops and seminars of interest

All parents of children enrolled are required to attend a parent orientation, enroll in and complete a parent education course, and participate in their child's classroom.

Research indicates that the most accurate predictor of achievement in school is the extent to which parents believe they can be key resources for and are involved in their children's education.

Online training will be given while Covid-19 restrictions are in place.
