

SPRING 2026 SANKOFA ACADEMIC INITIATIVE

Sankofa (SAHN-koh-fah) - go back to the past and bring forward that which is useful

The Sankofa Academic Initiative is designed for students interested in completing the ENG101, ENG102, or COM101 requirements while focusing on topics dedicated to Black authors and culture. Students will benefit from guest speakers, curated reading materials from Black authors, and instructors who can serve as mentors.

Sankofa courses can feature:
Mentoring, guest speakers, and low cost (LCB) or zero cost book (ZCB) options!

SPRING CLASS SCHEDULE

Communication 101 - Section 2019 (#30285)

In-person, 16 weeks, North Las Vegas Campus
Tuesday/Thursday, 3:30 PM-4:50 PM
Topic: Public speaking taught through the lens of Black and African American voices.

Communication 101 - Section 3201 (#25992)

In-person, 8 weeks, Charleston Campus
Friday, 1:00 PM-3:50 PM
Topic: Public Speaking, Informing Cultural Perspectives to Persuade and Enact Social Change

English 102 - Section 2008 (#30304)

In-person, 16 weeks, North Las Vegas Campus
Tuesday/Thursday, 1:30 PM-2:50 PM
Topic: Discovery of Self and Identity

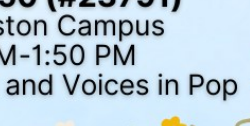

English 102 - Section 3008 (#23778)

In-person, 16 weeks, North Las Vegas Campus
Monday/Wednesday, 12:30 PM-1:50 PM
Topic: "It doesn't have to be!" Navigating to the other side through Composition II.

English 102 - Section 3021 (#29897)

In-person, 16 weeks, Charleston Campus
Wednesday, 6:00 PM-8:50 PM
Topic: The Harlem Renaissance Literature and Thesis Intensive

English 102 - Section 3850 (#23791)

In-person, 8 weeks, Charleston Campus
Tuesday/Thursday, 11:00 AM-1:50 PM
Topic: Black Representation and Voices in Pop Culture

For questions, or permission to enroll in one of these courses, email your name, NSHE number, and the course section number to Sankofa@csn.edu. Visit www.csn.edu/Sankofa for more information!

The Sankofa Academic Initiative is sponsored by Student Affairs, and the English Department.

